FOUND DEATH IN EXILE.

W. S. Darling, charged with Plummer's Wreck, dies in Montreal.

A despatch received this morning from Montreal says that W. S. Darling, who was formerly confidential manager for John F. Plummer, the New York dry-goods merchant, died at that city yesterday from the rupture of a blood vessel. He had long been ill with enlargement of the heart.

Darling had been highly trusted by Mr. Plummer that he had absolute control of the merchant's financial operations. It is alleged by the latter that it was a defalcation of about $500,000 by Darling which caused Mr. Plummer's failure in March, 1892.

No crest was Plummer's reliance upon which that no suspicion of false dealing had existed until the crash came. It was never learned what disposition Darling had made of the money.

KEEP OFF SANDY HOOK.

Practical Prohibition of Visitors to the Government's Reservation.

By a regulation of the War Department, just established, no visitors will hereafter be allowed on Government ground at Sandy Hook, except those provided with passes from the Ordnance Bureau in Washington, which can only be obtained through Capt. Heath, Fort Columbus, Governor's Island. Several days will be consumed in getting a pass.

The Sandy Hook Railroad, which formerly connected with the steamerboat from this city, will this week, it is announced, begin to tear down its sheds and other property. The road has been closed to traffic for some time, and having exhausted all means to prolong its life, gives up the contest.

The only communication with the Hook now is by boat.
